

Dance Ends Alumni Home Coming Tonight

Students Vacate For Nine Days

Nine whole days of freedom from school will be enjoyed by all Salinas Junior College students during Thanksgiving holidays. The vacation will start after school today and will come to an end Monday morning, December 2.

Although Thanksgiving Day is not until Thursday, the students have the Monday and Tuesday preceding off, because the instructors must attend teachers' institute on those days. The institute is for San Benito and Monterey County teachers and will be held at Washington School in Salinas. The program includes three excellent speakers each day, and Monday, two section meetings, one of which will be a luncheon.

This school semester will soon be over. After Thanksgiving vacation, there will be three weeks of school and then Christmas vacation begins. There will be only one week of school after Christmas vacation before finals.

Prom Bids On Sale In Main Office

"With the Winter Ball only a few weeks away, it would be wise to purchase prom bids from Miss Bassi in the main office as early as possible. The required $7 per couple is reasonable when you consider that it includes an evening of dining and dancing in the desert setting of the beautiful Hotel Rio Del Mar," states Jeanne Stanbery, who is in charge of bids.

Tables for the December 20 affair will be arranged to seat two or four couples. Any preferences

TICKETS FOR 'BARRETTS' ON SALE IN MAIN OFFICE; SUPPLY OF GOOD SEATS DIMINISHING!

All jaysee students planning to attend the fall play, "The Barretts," are urged to buy their tickets immediately. Tickets for the play, which will be presented December 12 and 13, went on sale in the administration office this week.

Tickets for the play are 60 cents; no one under 12 will be admitted unless accompanied by adults. The tickets are reserved

STUDENT COMMISSION TO HOST J.C. MEETING

COMMERCIAL INSTRUCTOR WINS HONOR

Mr. Claud Addison, prominent J.C. commercial instructor and dean of the occupational division, was recently elected president of the California Business Educators' Association, Central Coast section, at a meeting held at the Santa Lucia Inn.

The purpose of the meeting was reorganization of the central coast section which has been inactive during the war. The section, which extends from San Jose to San Luis Obispo, is one of five in California.

SJC HOSTS CONFERENCE DURING THANKSGIVING; MERCANTE WILL PRESIDE

One hundred and fifty representatives from junior colleges located all over California are expected to meet in Salinas, November 30, for a United California Junior College Council Conference. The jaysee Associated Student Commission will act as hosts to this affair.

Presidents, vice-presidents, and junior college advisors will attend this meeting to discuss college problems and formulate plans for new college activity.

Student body president Tony Mercante is in general charge of all arrangements, and he will receive aid from the other college commissioners.

Student help will be needed for this convention. Typists, shorthand students, registrars, guides, and those who wish to help in the cafeteria are urged to get in touch with their commissioners, Mr. B. L. Borough or Miss June Handley, today.

As this is the first conference of its kind to be held, it is imperative that Salinas fulfill its

Alumni Has Home Coming Here Today

Today, Jaysee students are welcoming college alumni with a large homecoming that will include an open house, football game, and evening dance. This celebration is the first of its kind to be held in the last five years.

Alpha Gamma Sigma and the World Student Service Fund organization have combined their efforts to reinstate in the jaysee an affair practiced annually in every college — that of having an alumni homecoming celebration.

Afternoon events, being directed by members of A.G.S., will include open house, an alumni meeting, and a refreshment hour. From 1 to 3 p.m., alumni are invited to visit the various classes that are in session. Faculty members will welcome their presence and are hopeful of the possibility of renewing old acquaintances. A very important meeting will be held in Room 2 from 3 to 4 p.m. This meeting is for the purpose

Cal Opens 1947 Term Enrollment

Applications for enrollments in the spring term at the University of California and its branches must be in by January 17, 1947.

Enrollment applications will be taken from now until January 17. Any applications after this date will be considered only for terms following the spring semester of 1947.

Students interested in coming to the university or any of its campuses should make arrangements in the administration office to have their preliminary transcripts mailed in as soon as possible.

The only additional record would then be a statement of the grades for the final semester.

Cinches Will Be Served as Special Thanksgiving Treat

It has been announced by the administration that cinch notices will be sent out during the Thanksgiving vacation.

During the first six-week period, well over 600 deficiency notices were received by more than 300 students.

Veterans to Be Offered Spanish Course in Mexico

Veterans of Salinas Junior College are being presented with a splendid opportunity to study Spanish at the University of Mexico in Mexico City this summer at the expense of the government through the G.I. Bill.

Mr. Emil Ramos and Mr. Jerry Girdner, after looking into the matter very thoroughly, have discovered that all veterans are entitled to take advantage of a six-weeks' course in Spanish to be obligation of making it a success.

Thinking Out Loud

By PEGGY ANNE TAYLOR

Not many people are concerned with the plight of the poor turkey at Thanksgiving. However, the people really can't be blamed as turkeys are very unco-operative. When they're stuffed, everyone else is empty, and when everyone else is stuffed, then they're empty.

This fellow is responsible for all of us "getting the bird."

Here's one day of the year set aside for a member of the animal kingdom, and he "loses his head" in the excitement and ends up making a "fowl" appearance—ends up. He's really a great glut-ton, too—always "gobbling."

The housewife spends hours painstakingly "dressing," and "basting" this fellow and how does he retaliate? He takes a steam bath, gets his "dressing" all brown, and splits out at all the seams.

The trouble the fellow creates has just begun, however. Never willing to give up, he puts up a big fight while reclining on the platter, and is appeased only when nestled safely in the carver's lap. Being modest, he takes his "dressing" with him.

There are still a great number of people who suffer great pains over eating parts of such a defenseless bird, but these pains can be relieved easily with one large dose of bicarbonate of soda.

cult ever handled by a junior college cast.

All costumes and scenery will be of the Nineteenth Century period. Costumes are coming from Goldstein's in San Francisco, and scenery is being constructed by Mr. Amyx's art classes. One novelty of the elaborate set will be an old, Nineteenth Century carpet designed out of a piece of canvas.

The cast moved into make-up rehearsals this week, and will spend the remainder of the time between now and opening night putting a smooth polish on their individual performances.

WSSF CONTRIBUTORS LAGGING SAYS LINK

Chairman Charles Link of the World Student Service Fund announced today that contributions are lagging. Thus far, only $40 have been collected. However, the proceeds from tonight's dance, and the individual donations from the various different school organizations are still forthcoming.

Chairman Link expressed hope that the students would rally to the cause at tonight's dance by dropping their contributions into a wishing well which will be strategically placed in the middle of the dance floor.

Shirley Paul, one of the members of the W.S.S.F. committee, has urged that all students who wish to contribute to the dance, may do so by making a dozen sandwiches and turning them into her for selling at the dance. Students intending to make sandwiches should see Shirley today.

Coeds Hostess Del Monte Dance

Salinas Jaycee women are invited to hostess a formal pre-Thanksgiving dance to be held Saturday night at the Del Monte Hotel. The dance is being planned by the men of the naval training station located there.

Coeds of the college who plan on attending the dance should meet at the Hotel Jeffery at 8 p.m. where buses will meet them and transport them to the dance.

Preceding the dance, a buffet supper will be served and entertainment will be presented.

FROM SUBLIME TO RIDICULOUS

Sublime

God gave me eyes to see
The beauty of his making.
His flowers, burst in bloom,
The morn, when dawn is breaking.

He wanted me to see
The love that comes shining through
A mother's face—lover's heart,
A friend who is tried and true.

To see those less fortunate
That I might lend a hand,
Those who have strayed from the path,
To help them understand.

I thank thee, Lord, for this gift,
And now I humbly pray,
To help me keep them open,
And fully live each day.

AMEN

STUDENT ART ON EXHIBITION FOR ALUMNI

In honor of the homecoming, the students of the various art classes are contributing to an exhibition of their works. The exhibit is to be held in the Art Gallery. It will open today, and continue until one week after Thanksgiving.

The exhibition will consist of landscapes, drawings, sketches, water colors, commercial designs, and various amusing works.

Among the contributors are the following students: Finis Jeffers, Ken Abbott, Edith Beck, Pattie Weatherbie, Noboru Shimostseka, Gretchen Kolb, Bob Bushta, Mert Stroh, Ann Nichols, Thea Obana, Rea Adams, Lily Perez, Joe Breadon, Al Hull, Ardoth Terrill, Jane Barrich, Paul Whitman, and Harris Von Volkenburg.

Ridiculous

I haunted every store in town,
Added ten callouses to my feet,
Liquidated next month's budget,
So Thanksgiving I could eat and eat.

Two days before the gala day,
I started on those things hard to make.
Reaching way back in my cupboard,
I dug out my "one-year-old" fruit cake.

It was well seasoned with brandy,
But to make sure it was a success,
I poured a spoonful more on top,
And licked the spoon—cook's privilege, I guess!

I started to make a mincemeat pie,
But goodness, that spoon tasted swell!
So I had another little nip,
Then poured the filling in the shell.

The pie took an hour to bake,
So I had another little drink,
Took the pan out of the oven,
And emptied the contents in the sink.

I peeled all the nuts and cracked some fruit,
And then sneaked one little drink more,
Whipped the cake; wax papered the cream,
Mopped the cranberries; jelled the floor.

I gulped just another little one,
Put the bottle back in the stove;
Defrosted my Bendix washer;
Unraveled the rug I had wove.

Stuffed the carrots; shredded the Turkey; hung radish roses on my ear.

of forming an alumni association, and formulating plans for future business to be carried out by the group. Refreshments will be served in the home economics dining room at 4 p.m.

Added attraction to the day's events is the Mesa, Colorado, Junior College versus Salinas Junior College football game that will be played at 8 o'clock in the high school stadium.

Following the game, a dance honoring all alumni will be held in the men's gymnasium of the college. Bill Cordes and his Swingsters, who are offering their services in behalf of the W.S.S.F. Fund, will be on hand to furnish the music for the dance.

All students of the college, as well as the alumni, are urged to attend this dance. Admission fee will be $1 for couples, and 75 cents for stags. All profits derived from this affair will be deposited into the W.S.S.F. Fund.

Barbara Bateman, Salinas Jaycee student, was the winner of a $100 pool on the Army-Notre Dame game.

Then all of a sudden the floor arose,

And forced my front to the rear!

A subdued and quiet little girl Sat down to her Thanksgiving feast.

And headed up her list of blessings,

That she was just sick—and not deceased!

Sophs Took Frosh At Field Day

By DOLORES STORMENT

Salinas Junior College students participated Friday afternoon, November 16, in a campus Field Day. Everyone was excused from afternoon classes to take part in the activities.

The annual Field Day was the climax of Ribbonero and Whiskerino, and featured freshmen versus sophomores in the contests. Two softball games opened the day's activities—both fellows and girls on the teams. The sophomores won both games, 28 to 18 and 12 to 11.

The freshman girls defeated the sophomore girls, 3 to 0, in a hockey game, and the sophs then won the speedball game with a 10-to-2 score. The touch football game ended 13 to 0 in favor of the sophomore team.

The traditional mudhole, dug by the frosh, was the scene of most excitement. The beardless boys were tossed, dragged, and shoved into the slimy mud with futile protests, to the gleeful shouts and thrusts of the bearded huskies. Before the brawl was over, the boys who were "too young to shave" had the he-men in the mud with them. The sophomores won the brawl.

A delicious chicken dinner, sponsored by the Men's Club, in the men's gym put an end to the field day. Whiskerino, and Ribbonero. Hoping to catch the judge's eye, the girls wore their best ribbons; and the fellows trimmed their beards.

After the dinner, the ribbons and whiskers were judged and prizes awarded. Lloyd Smith was chosen winner of the fanciest beard. Frank Stone won the prize for having the most whiskers; Fred Stone got the prize for having grown the longest beard.

The winning ribbon, a huge red and white bow decorated with tinsel and a battery light, was worn by Peggy Anne Taylor. Bonnie Fish won the originality prize with a battery-powered light on her ribbon, and Mary Lou Riordan won the prize for the loveliest bow with her snowball puffs.

The prizes were J.C. pendants to be worn by the girls as a necklace and by the boys as a keychain decoration.

Working hard to make the event a success are Jeanne Stanbery, Kenny Abbott, who is making the poster advertisements, and Lloyd Smith, acting Commissioner of Social Activities.

CAMPUS
PATTIE WEATHERBIE

Once again neatness and cleanliness rule the campus after almost a month of itchy beards and bedsheet ribbons.

Blue is still a top color favorite with the boys and it looks tops on Earl Burns. Earl is wearing a plaid wool shirt with a heavenly shade of blue for the background. The overall plaid is white and light gray. Neat, indeed.

Another sharp plaid is a suit with a short jacket and a wrap-around fringe skirt being worn by Louise Marshall. The plaid is a composite of beige, yellow, and light green. If you've noticed the little silver gadget hanging about Louise's neck and wondered what it is, it's a cigarette lighter—in miniature!

A very exciting football game Saturday night found Ruthie Alarid dressed for it. Ruthie was wearing those ever-popular peddle pushers in an unusual grayed shade of yellow.

Ralph Mack, having to stand on the sidelines with his arm in a sling, looked mighty fine, anyway, in a heavy wool black and white check overshirt. A little active cheering plus a shirt like Ralph's is the remedy for any chilly night at a football game!

When Jack Shapiro gave his reading for the Soroptimists' luncheon last week, he looked especially nice in a brown tweed sport jacket with light brown gabardine slacks. For the gay touch, the popular wine bow tie was added.

One day when the shining sun actually "warmed" this school Jerry Albery looked comfortably cool in a white rayon short-sleeved sport shirt with fuschia and chartreuse palm trees suggesting the land of dates.

Doris Johnson is wearing a clever little silver chatelaine with a ballet theme, across the slit neckline of a light yellow wool dress. The sleeves are long, gathered, and raglan in style, while the matching touch in silver is sprinkled on the brown leather belt. Very nice.

1946 La Reatas
Now Being Sold
At Reduced Price

An oversupply of last year's La Reata at the student bookstore has lowered the price of the annual to 50 cents each. Mr. G. Darwin Peavy, bookstore manager, warns the students that there will not be an oversupply of this year's annual as the number ordered was determined by the number already sold. Students, therefore, must not expect to be able to buy the 1947 La Reata through the bookstore in the spring.

Jim Armstrong
Now Editing
A.A.F. Paper

James Armstrong, former outstanding junior college student and June, 1945, graduate, is now in Europe with the occupation forces of the United States Army Air Corps.

During the time he has been located in Germany, Bavaria, and other occupied countries, he has started an air corps newspaper called the "Ardee News." He is editor and photographer of the paper, and several copies of the publication, plus a picture issue has been sent to local friends.

Majoring in dramatics and public speaking, Jim took part in many of the college plays and was a great promoter of the annual Soph Show. He was the instigator of the Freshman Bible, and during his jaysee career, acted as master of ceremonies at the Freshman Reception.

No Excused Classes For Club Meetings

Classes will not be excused at 3 o'clock this afternoon as previously has been the custom, due to the excusing of the classes last Friday for Field Day. The club meetings scheduled for that time, Alpha Gamma Sigma and the Home Economics organization, Colhecon, will take place as planned. Only students who do not have classes at 3 o'clock will be able to attend.

Marge Borges
Engaged

Another name has been added to the "to be married" list after last Saturday. Margery Borges of Soledad announced her engagement to Enos Piini of Gonzales.

Mr. Piini graduated from Gonzales High School with the class of 1942 and is now a navy veteran. Miss Borges is also a graduate of Gonzales High with the class of 1946 and is now attending J.C. A date for the wedding has not been set.

ENGAGED GIRL
GIVEN SHOWER

Miss Barbara Roddick, fiancée of Bob Balsley, was honored on Thursday evening, November 14, at a "kitchen shower" given by Mary Lou Balsley.

Plans are being made for a December wedding.

U.G.C.

Christmas
Committees
Chosen

At a meeting of the U.G.C. last week, suggestions were made and committees chosen for a Christmas party to be held December 19, from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m.

The music committee consists of Alice Kinder, chairman; Jean Feliz, and Mary Galpin. Joyce Mathews is in charge of group singing; entertainment, Peggy Ann Taylor and Shirley Paul; refreshments, Eva Kelleher, Phyllis Smith, Audrey Sumner, and Berma Langston. Kay Larkin is chairman of the decorating committee with Mimi Rookledge, Gloria Brodie, Frances Munoz, Lois Light, Elizabeth Brubaker, and Mary Ellen Preston serving as her committee.

given in Mexico City at the University of Mexico this summer.

The course will begin July 6, and will continue for six weeks. It is not necessary to have a Spanish background to take advantage of this course, but it would be to the student's advantage to know some Spanish before going down to Mexico to study.

Spanish classes are gathering information in regards to transportation and living quarters. This trip is not only for veterans. Any student interested who is not a veteran may go if he can pay his own expenses.

Thus far, approximately 20 students have signed up to go and arrangements to take two cars have already been made. Anyone interested in this opportunity may get information from George Gossler as to signing up for the trip.

RIBBONERO CONTEST WINNERS

Peggy Anne Taylor, Bonnie Fish, and Mary Lou Rioridan, left to right, were the winners of the women's Ribbonero contest held following the Men's Club dinner. Mary Lou won the prize for the loveliest bow, Bonnie won the originality prize, and Peggy won over all for the largest ribbon in the contest.

Revised Vacation
Calendar

A revised calendar of vacations scheduled from now until finals are given during the week of January 15 to 24 has been released by the administration.

November 25 to December 2, Thanksgiving vacation.

December 20 to January 6, Christmas vacation.

Grammar School Vacations Now
Wished Back by Jaysee Students

Remember the good old grammar school days when teachers used to tell departing students the day before Thanksgiving vacation, "Have a happy vacation, kiddies, and don't eat too much turkey."

Those days have gone forever. Now, the last statement handed to college students as they are happily headed toward the door is, "Have a nice vacation, fellas, but don't forget to study for your mid-term, and be sure to finish your themes that are due the Monday you return to school."

"Oh, for the good old carefree vacation days!"

Panthers Nosed Out 12-12 By San Mateo

Despite the fact that they turned in their best performance to date, the Salinas J.C. gridders dropped a tough 13-12 decision to the San Mateo Bulldogs before the year's smallest gathering, 750 loyal rooters, last Saturday evening in the Salinas high school Lettuce Bowl.

It was by far the outstanding performance of the locals to date as the line broke through time after time to spill the invaders for huge losses. Clarence Twitchell and Frank Garner combined to produce a ground-gaining aerial attack with Chet Garner, Everett McAdams, and Don Napoli on the receiving end.

San Mateo wasted no time breaking into the scoring column as they returned the opening kickoff to their own 35-yard stripe and proceeded to go all the way with fullback Jack Donaldson plunging through the middle for one yard and the six points. The conversion attempt was wide. The 65 yards were covered in 19 consecutive ground plays that produced five first downs.

The Panthers made their first threat late in the first quarter when they marched to the San Mateo 11 only to lose the ball on a pass interception. The Bulldogs were unable to advance and punted to their 47.

Burke Scores

Frank Garner faded back to pass but being unable to spot a receiver, elected to run and picked up nine yards. Hal Jensen on his first play of the game tossed to Chet Garner for a first down on the visitors' 5. An off-side penalty cost the Bulldogs two and a half yards, or half the distance to the goal line. Don Burke boomed over the middle for the score. The placement was blocked and the score stood at 6-6.

Fumble Halts March

The Panthers threatened to duplicate San Mateo's initial score when they opened the third period by picking up four first downs in quick succession only to lose the ball on the San Mateo 19 through a fumble.

After failing to gain on three plays, the Bulldogs sent Duane Cheney back in punt formation, but the charging Panther forward wall altered his plans and Cheney was forced to run but was not able to pick up the necessary yardage needed for a first down.

Panthers Score

A holding penalty set the locals back 15 yards but then the Panthers uncorked the play of the night. Frank Garner tossed to Napoli who fumbled on the Bulldog 44 only to have Chet Garnero scoop up the elusive pigskin and race all the way for the tie-breaking score. The Panthers attempted to pick up the extra point via the airways but the pass was incomplete.

The Bulldogs came roaring back and tied the contest once more as Donaldson again scored on a short line smash to climax a 64-yard drive. The all-important conversion was good as Gene Yore's placement sailed cleanly through the uprights for the winning point.

Both teams had excellent scoring opportunities in the waning minutes of the ball game but were not able to convert them into scores.

FLIP DeBORD FLIPS TERRORS TO VICTORY

Highlights of last week's intramural football was Topper's Terrors' first touchdown of the season. The Terrors had previously won three of their four games without crossing the goal line.

The masterpiece was the result of a 50-yard toss from Flip "The Arm" DeBord to Jim Gillette. The extra point was strictly a DeBord affair with Flip tossing to brother Tom for the seventh point.

The touchdown proved to be the winning margin as the Terrors downed Ramponi's Ramblers 7-0 to even their series. The Ramblers had won an earlier game 6-0.

Work's Lumberjacks maintained their unblemished record when they took the measure of Mercant's Manglers in another 7-0 tilt.

Work himself produced the score on a 25-yard sprint. Flip DeBord (yes, the same one) tossed to Bob Wigham for the extra point.

League standings as of November 19:

	W	L
Work's Lumberjacks	3	0
Topper's Terrors	4	1
Muniz's Maulers	3	2
Mercant's Manglers	2	4
Ramponi's Ramblers	2	4
Riordan's Rippers	0	4

INTERSECTIONAL TILT HERE

SPORTS SHORTS

By NAT BUA

From what we hear, failing to see the game, the Jaysee Panthers finally put their utmost into their football game last Saturday against San Mateo. To put it bluntly, rumors were flying that the boys were not, shall we say, trying. Hard as it is to take it, it was the actual truth. Some members of the team actually admitted they were not putting out, but promised to really give it the old college try in the next game.

They lived up to that promise, playing their finest game of the season against the Bulldogs, failing to win by the narrowest of margins.

Many junior college students were present at Sunday's "Little Big Game" between St. Mary's and Santa Clara at San Francisco. All of them came back muttering to themselves, and to others, of the magician-like football ability of one Herman Wedemeyer, hula-hipped Hawaiian of St. Mary's.

A recent vote by Northern California sportswriters chose Squirmin' Herman as the most outstanding gridiron ace this season, a title he also took last year. As far as these scribes are concerned, he is a unanimous selection for All-American once again.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE

With the grid season just about passed into history, the five "A" division schools of the N.C.J.C.C. have turned their attention to the coming basketball season. San Francisco already has a one-sided victory over the S.F. Marines to their credit in the only organized game to date.

On the local cage scene, Coach Ed Adams has called the first cage drill of the 1946-47 season for next Monday at 3 o'clock in the men's gym. Familiar names of basketball greats of the college and neighboring high schools have been affixed to the sign-up sheet, so it looks like a winning season is in the offing.

Sacramento J.C. walked away with conference honors last year so they will be back in the picture again this year, along with the Modesto Pirates who always prove a threat.

Coach Adams has set out a call for all basketball aspirants in the school, and should travel difficulties make it impossible for some cagers to show up during Thanksgiving vacation, the first Monday after schools resumes is the time for the hoopsters to turn out for practice.

Mesa Jaysee Plays Salinas in Grid Finale

Salinas Junior College football picture takes on an intersectional aspect when the Panthers wind up a none-too-successful season by tangling with Mesa Junior College of Grand Junction, Colorado, in the final game for the home eleven.

In tonight's homecoming battle at the Lettuce Bowl, Coach Ed Adams' men hope to climax their grid season with a win over the classy outfit from the Rockies. Mesa has proved to be the class of their conference throughout the season back in the hill country, and will be pointing for another win tonight.

The Panthers dropped a 13-to-12 decision last week to San Mateo, but in doing so unveiled a quick striking passing attack that netted them well over 100 yards via the airways. If Salinas can unleash the same type offense, with Frank Garner and Clarence Twitchell chucking, the final game may well be a winning one for the Panthers.

Chet Garner and Dick Ryder, a newcomer to the ranks, led an inspired line against San Mateo. The forward wall will be fired up for Mesa, who boast a line averaging 186 pounds.

Mesa took Weber College into camp lately, 7-6, while Weber eked out a 27-26 triumph over Modesto Pirates of the N.C.J.C.C. last week. The Coloradoans have won six games and lost one to date, the loss coming early in the season, to Trinidad State Junior College, 27-0.

For the most part, the Panther squad will return intact next season with a year of experience behind them. This season, while not a winning one, proved to be a building year at the college.

It's Homecoming Day on the campus, so a large crowd will undoubtedly be on hand to witness festivities, both undergrads and alumni.

FOOTBALL RESULTS

While the Salinas Panthers were edged out 13-12 last week, the Modesto Pirates also took it on the chin, dropping a close, 27-26, to Weber Junior College. Stockton, victors over the Panthers this season, poured it on Yuba J.C., racking up a 45-2 triumph over the north-staters.

LOCALS RACK UP WINTER LEAGUE WIN

Salinas Junior College Panther baseball players continued on their way of winning them all when they defeated the Carmel Legion last Sunday, 7-6, in the second Winter League baseball clash. Each team went into the game undefeated.

The ball game was played at the Monterey Ball Park before a fairly good crowd.

Batters on Spree

Only the hitting power of the Panthers spelled the difference between victory and defeat for the locals. A three-run rally in the first frame, after two were out, put the locals off to a good start. Charlie Mornard, leading batter for the Panthers, started the spree with a double, high off the screen in left field. Chet Garner rose to the occasion, and living up to his position of cleanup batter, slashed a single into center for the first tally for the Panthers. Don Napoli was safe on an infield error and Frank Stone then walloped a double to left field for two more runs.

Another three-run outburst in the fifth and a single tally in the sixth gave the locals their seven run total. Hal Hunter, Finis Jeffers, and Dean Dillingham supplied the hitting power in these displays of scoring.

Legionnaires Rally

Meanwhile, the Legion bats were not exactly silent. They pounded chucker Dean Dillingham for tallies in the first, second, fourth, and fifth innings. A three-run outburst in the fifth by the Legion started reliever Topper Arnett warming up, and he finally took over in the seventh, holding the Legion to one base hit and runs in the final three innings. Thus, the Panthers' slim lead was protected and the final score read 7-6 for the Salinas Junior College, making them league leaders.

All boys who dressed for the contest saw action. Coach Dominic Campolo started a line-up of Finis Jeffers, catcher; Dean Dillingham, pitcher; Frank Stone, first base; Chet Garner, second base; Tom Perez, third base; Irv Parker, shortstop; and Charlie Mornard, Don Napoli, and Hal Hunter in the outfield.
